Message from the Executive Director

Dear Board members, Staff, volunteers and members,

Amid the challenges including lack of operational space, our programs have provided a lifeline to those in need, offering not only a creative outlet but also a path to emotional healing and mental well-being. With the support of our dedicated staff, volunteers, and partners, we have continued reaching individuals in various communities including newcomers and LGBTQ+ members. We expanded our services, and solidified our place as a trusted resource in the mental health and arts community.

Thank you for being part of this journey.

Sincerely,

Our Corner of Creativity workshops helped participants build self-confidence, express emotions, and develop healthy coping mechanisms through art therapy and creative workshops.

2. Outcomes:90% of participants reported improved emotional expression and reduced anxiety.

3. Public Programs

Our public workshops and events continued to thrive, providing accessible art programming for individuals from all walks of life. Through partnerships with local galleries and cultural institutions such as Spanic Arts, Good Neighbour Community Market, Perline Foundation for Wellbeing, International Arts Avenue and Culture and Calgary Parks, we delivered 10+ public sessions, open to anyone seeking the mental health benefits of creative engagement.

4. Outcomes: 70% of attendees were first-time participants, demonstrating the growing demand for mental health through art initiatives.

5. Client Success Stories

Newcomer Clients at Centre for Newcomers had a very emotional response to our Mindful Landscape Painting session. Centre for Newcomers staff shared with us that some clients reported :

“Still missing home, I felt isolated and overwhelmed as a newcomer in Canada. Through painting and sharing with other newcomers, I not only rediscovered my passion for art but also found a supportive community. Today, I feel stronger, more confident, and hopeful for the future.”

Marnie Ellsworth attended our public workshops:

“Wonderful evening being creative. I appreciated the laid back and accepting environment. Very encouraging & fun. Thank you!”
